- 3) From Sri Y.Seshu Prasad, formerly RDO, Sec'bad explanation dt.06-05-2013.

ORDER:

In the reference 1st read above, the Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, Hyderabad has stated that the Collector, Hyderabad has reported that Sri Y. Seshu Prasad, formerly Revenue Divisional Officer, Secunderabad division, presently working as Joint Director, Survey Settlements and Land Records, A.P. Hyderabad, has wrongly granted Occupancy Right Certificate for an extent of Ac. 6-38 gts, in favour of Mrs. Shalini Saincher with out verification of Basic Revenue and Survey records of Chandulal Bowli and Thokatta village while working as Revenue Divisional Officer, Secunderabad division in file No. B/4510/2005, dt. 17.05.2007 and the applicability of law and requested to initiate disciplinary action against him.

After careful examination the matter, Government have decided to initiate disciplinary action against Sri Y. Seshu Prasad, formerly Revenue Divisional Officer, Secunderabad division and accordingly charges were framed against him calling for his explanation vide reference 2nd read above. In reply to the charge, he has submitted explanation vide reference 3rd read above.

The Charged officer, Sri Y. Seshu Prasad, formerly Revenue Divisional Officer, Secunderabad division, in his explanation among other things has stated that basing on the report of the Mandal Revenue Officer, Tirumalgiri Mandal in letter No.B/4306/2005, dated.14-11-2006, which is based on the physical verification of site and spot enquiry of the Mandal Revenue Inspector and Mandal Surveyor, and also the report of the Deputy Director, Survey and Land Records, Hyderabad District in Letter No.A3/999/2004, dt. 11-2006 and the documentary evidence produced by the applicant, he has granted Occupancy Right Certificate under the provisions of the A.P.(T.A.) Inams Abolition Act, 1955 to an extent of Ac.6-38 gts in Thokatta (V) of Tirumalgiri Mandal in case No.B/4510/2005, dated.17-5-2007. He has stated that the order passed by him was quasi-judicial in nature and the aggrieved person can prefer an appeal before the appellate authority under section 24 of the Act. He has also stated that, the Occupancy Right Certificate granted by him in case No.B/4510/2005, dated.17-5-2007 was confirmed by the Joint Collector, Hyderabad District in judgement dated.6-12-2008 as appellate authority on disposal of the appeal filed Under Section 24 (1) of the AP (T.A) Inams Abolition Act, 1955 by one Sri K.Padma Reddy S/o K. Janardhan Reddy. Thus, he has stated that, his action in having granted the Occupancy Right Certificate was upheld by the next appellate authority and finally he has requested to drop further action against him.

After careful examination of the matter, Government have observed that, the Occupancy Rights Certificate(ORC) granted by the delinquent officer was upheld by the Appellate Authority on disposal of Appeal filed by the aggrieved parties. The successive appellant authorities issued orders twice separately. As the action of the delinquent was upheld by the Appellate Authority, it is not reasonable to find fault with delinquent officer in granting Occupancy Rights Certificates basing on the orders issued by successive Appellate Authority without jurisdiction and therefore there is no reasons to hold the charge as proved and hence finally the Government have decided to drop further action against the charged officer. Accordingly, further action against Sri Y.Seshuprasad, formerly Revenue Divisional Officer, Secunderabd is hereby dropped.

The Chief Commissioner of Land Administration , Hyderabad is therefore requested to take necessary further action in the matter.
